

Education is a better safeguard of liberty than a standing army...

About US

Vaishali Institute of Education & Technology is one such institute which is committed to make a sustained effort to impart value based teacher education to young graduates. Other than the highly qualified and committed full time faculty, the institute has a rich resource base of visiting faculty to provide the students a strong base in theoretical and practical learning in the basic disciplines of teacher education as well as specialized skills.

Vaishali Institute of Education & Technology is a leading specialized international College offering specifically designed programs to train and qualify teachers for the English teaching world as well as prepare English speakers to take on assignments and positions with many of the leading international organizations in their own

Vaishali Institute of Education & Technology is a leading specialized international College offering specifically designed programs to train and qualify teachers for the English teaching world as well as prepare English speakers to take on assignments and positions with many of the leading international organizations in their own selected field worldwide. Located with its main campus in Vaishali, Bihar INDIA , Vaishali Institute leads the international field in the teaching and education programs in support of individuals wishing to participate in the evolving opportunities in teaching and education worldwide.

Vaishali Institute of Education & Technology is a premier Institute engaged in providing the environment necessary to facilitate advance learning. The infrastructure of the Institute facilities, course designs and teaching methodology are designed keeping in view its commitment to achieve excellence in the fields of education. It is situated in sprawling pollution free campus, located in the prime area. The campus of the institute is inspiring with well laid out lush green lawns, flower beds, trees and shrubs, which charge the body, mind and soul. It offers a pleasant environment for study, healthy living & business activities.